Vienna, October 10, N. S.

WE have Advice of the Auſtrian Army's moving gradually towards the North, ſo that the Town of Plan was become the General Quarter, and the Right extended to Cutten Plan, while Mentzel was poſted nearer to Egra. The French, to obviate the Conſequences of this Poſition, which tended towards cutting them more and more from Prague and even from Egra, if not from Amberg, attempted with 3000 Men and Cannon to diſlodge Mentzel, who received them ſo well, as to beat them back with the Loſs of 280 Priſoners, beſides what was killed and wounded. After which, the whole French Generality came out of their Wood with 4000 Men to reconnoitre the Auſtrians; but haſten'd back upon the firſt Appearance of the Huſſars, who waited upon them to their very Camp. In the mean while the Prince de Deux Ponts arrived at the French Army with ten Poſtilions, to give Notice of the Raiſing of the Siege and Blockade of Prague, where the French are however almoſt as much ſhut up as ever to the Weſt, and it is thought will be more ſo in a ſhort Time; for beſides all the irregular Forces that are gathering for that Purpoſe, of which ſeveral, who retired, have been prevailed upon to return, four Regiments of Cavalry, viz. St. Ignon, Dollon, Wirtenberg, and Birkenfeld are marched from the main Army to Leuthmeritz, from whence they will, with the others, have an Eye to the Motions of the French towards Saxony and the Eaſt. We hear that M. de Maillebois has at laſt taken the Reſolution to retire out of Bohemia through the Woods by which he enter'd; and it is believed, from Seckendorf's being at Landau upon the Iſſer, and upon a ſtrong Garriſon's having been tranſported from Straubing to Deckendorf, that his Intention is to go into Bavaria, with a Deſign to ſeize upon Paſſau.

Vienna, October 13, N. S. General Berenclau is retired from Munich, after having blown up Part of the Fortifications, and exacted a Promiſe in Writing from the Burghers, to open their Gates to the firſt Auſtrian Troops that return. He ſecured his Retreat by Waſſerburg, and by that Means remains Maſter of the Inn, as Seckendorf is of the Iſſer, and the Towns upon it. 4000 Horſe have been ſent, chiefly from the Army in Bohemia, to reinforce Berenclau.

Copenhagen, October 23, N. S. Count Bunau and Count Finkenſtein, the Imperial and Pruſſian Miniſters, took their Audiences of Leave laſt Friday at Fridericksburg, and propoſe to ſet out for Germany in a Day or two. Three Dutch Men of War are come to an Anchor in the Sound; a Fourth being every Moment expected there. They are bound for Revel and Narva. Their Daniſh Majeſties return'd hither Yeſterday, and 'tis believed, intend now to ſettle for the Winter.

Dreſden, October 24, N. S. The Duke of Weiſſenfels is come hither, in order to take, with Count Rutowski, ſome more effectual Reſolution for the Defence of theſe Frontiers againſt the French Marauders, and to prevent Diſorders. The Diſtreſs of Marſhal Maillebois increaſes from the Want of Proviſions and the Difficulties of marching, according to his ſuppoſed Deſign, towards the Danube, or indeed of moving at all without great Hazard. A Party of about 2 or 300 French, chiefly Officers as is reported, went to Caaden, not knowing that the Auſtrians were there, from whom they endeavour'd afterwards, in vain, to eſcape. Some got into Churches and Convents, but the Pandoures did not reſpect thoſe Sanctuaries, and continued their Slaughter, which Nadaſti their Commander could not ſtop, tho' it is ſaid, he ſaved the Life of the Chief of that Detachment. The Huſſars have taken 600 Oxen, and ſome Proviſions intended for Prague. This Court is informed from ſeveral Places, that there is a peſtilential Diſtemper raging in Hungary towards the Frontiers of Poland, and has directed the Chancellor of that Republick to iſſue out ſuch Orders as were given in 1739, on the ſame Occaſion, to prevent all Communication with that Neighbourhood.

Hamburgh, October 26, N. S. We hear that Count Seckendorf has taken Poſſeſſion of a Town, called Roſenhaim, ſituated upon the Inn. The Generals, who are under Confinement at Stockholm, have had Counſel granted to them; and it is ſaid that their Cauſe will be ſoon brought to a publick Hearing.

Bruſſels, October 27, N. S. Yeſterday his Majeſty's Hanoverian Troops were reviewed by his Excellency the Earl of Stair in the Plain of Dighem, a League off of this Place, between the Louvain Road and Vilvorden. The whole 16000 Men were drawn up by Nine in the Forenoon, by Regiments in one Line; half of the Horſe, with the Horſe Guards and Dragoons, formed the Right, and the other half of the Horſe the Left Wing. The three Companies of Artillery were between the Foot and the Left Wing of Horſe, ſo that theſe Troops ſtretched almoſt a League in Length. The Field Artillery, of about 24 Pieces of Cannon, were on the

the other Side of the Road, opposite to the Right Wing. The two Princes of Hesse Cassel rode first all along the Line, and had all due Honours paid them. A little after, his Excellency the Earl of Stair, in Company with the Governor General of these Low-Countries, attended by most of the General Officers and chief Nobility, rode also all along the Line, with the military Honours paid him; after which they retired to several Tents. About Twelve the Hanoverian Army filed off by the Right, nine a-breast, in Review before his Excellency, who had the Princes of Hesse, the Governor General, and all their Court and his with him. The March lasted till after Five in the Afternoon, to the Satisfaction of all present, who were extreamly pleased with the great Beauty and good Order of these Troops. Onslow Burrish, Esq; who is appointed his Majesty's Secretary at the Court of Liege, set out hence two Days ago for that Station.

Dublin Castle, October 12.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Coronation, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon their Excellencies the Lord's Justices met at the Castle, where a Squadron of Horse attended, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon this Occasion: At Night a Play was given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies, and there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

In the 30th Line of the Second Column of last Tuesday's Gazette, for 900 Men, read 9000 Men.

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid on putting the same into such Office.

By Command of the Post Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, London, Sept. 29, 1742.

POST CHAISES between London and Bath.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post masters on the Road between London and Bath, are ready to furnish any Gentlemen, or others, with Post Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give sufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as short Warning as for Post Horses, any Hour either in the Day or Night. And farther Notice is hereby given, that whereas the Distance between Marlborough and Bath, has never yet been considered as Post Road, it will be computed at Thirty four Miles, according to Tompion's Measurement between those two Places. Gentlemen who have Occasion to go Post on the Bath Roads, are desired to apply to Mr. Miller, Post-master, at the White Bear in Piccadilly.

N. B. A Post Chaise may be had at any of the Stages on the Bath Road, to go Part or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for those who do not chuse to travel in the Night. By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
